Content index Video: Passive voice English Level: Middle, Advanced,Language Focus: A review of the passive voice in contrast to the active voice Worksheet: (scroll down to study online exercises) Go to: Intermediate exercises, Advanced/Advanced For a detailed explanation of the reason why we use the passive voice, read this lesson. Only phrases that have the object of a verb can be modified in passive voice. Active voice: I invited John. [Subject] + [verb] + [object] passive voice: John was invited by me. In a passive phrase, the object of the verb (in the active sentence) becomes the topic. Past: a new house was under construction in our way. (The house is over.) A new house is under construction in our way. - Trevor is offered a place. (Suggestion: they are called transitive because you can transfer an object to them.) A ghost appeared. (We don't know who did it). The car is repaired. He made him do it. Was the shop open? Question: Is the letter written? In all examples above the agent it is not mentioned. (Other continuous times are normally used in the active item, not in the passive.) Present: a new house is under construction in our way. He was offered a job. Use the passive is used: 1. (the verb does not have an object, so it is not possible to make a passive phrase) active item: an accident occurred. This theater was built in 1868. Perfect passive: the car had been repaired. We don't know who destroyed the window. (Not passive à e, ~ à e no be + past participle) Guideline 2: Look at the topic of the sentence and therefore the verb. The shop was not open. It was made to do it. (The intransitive verb "appears" has no object.) Guidelines 1: if the phrase does not contain a past participle, then it cannot be a passive phrase. John was eating a snack. In English this form is more frequent than in many other languages. Only transitive verbs (having fun, killing, capturing, show) can be used in the passive voice. (Her husband of her arrives in the middle of the introduction.) When she arrived, her husband was presented to the lady the car was repaired. English was spoken in shop. The flowers were planted by my mother. Will be done in time. (Someone offered him the job.) They should be good students. Past PDF passive exercises were/were captured. Part 2: Ask questions about a bank robbery.
